

Week 6 – Dress Up Theme – BOOK Week

It was an epic morning! KSS Playgroup/KindylinQ joined the big school to celebrate Book Week! There was a Mario brother, Dark Vader, a pirate, Macca the Alpaca, Elsa, a green sheep, Spiderman, Batman and an explorer as our dressed up attendees. Afterwards our group enjoyed activities up in the Sports Hall due to more wet weather. The children could draw on paper under the table, create book worms, make bookmarks, try to balance a book on their head, create towers with blocks and enjoy the container of toy cars on a track. Our session concluded with a rhyme, "Wee Willy Winky," and the story, "There's No Such Book," written by Jessica Dettmann and Jake Minton, whilst we enjoyed our morning tea. When the Sports Hall was empty of activities, the children thought it would be a great idea to get some energy out and hold their own running races. A big thank you to Bryon's Dad who was the race starter and supervised these races.

Week 7 – Dress Up Theme – Superheroes

Due to staff illness, Playgroup/KindylinQ was unable to go ahead on this Friday. It is anticipated that our superheroes theme will be completed in Week 9 – 12th September. We look forward to seeing you all dressed up to help celebrate our super powers.
