Who do we help?

Starfish supports children and young people aged up to 18 years who may be experiencing emotional health and wellbeing challenges.

Families and carers are able to get help to support their children. We also work with community groups and schools.

We offer FREE:

- Practical support for children, young people and their families
- Individual counselling
- Links to local services
- Parent/carer psycho-education
- Mental health and social-emotional wellbeing workshops
- Community outreach, education and events
